Trenton Lodge No. 105, BPOE, will honor Hobert L. Blackledge, Grand Exalted Ruler of the Elks, at a reception Tuesday afternoon.

Blackledge is making an official visit to New Jersey Elks lodges and will make a formal call on Governor Meyer at the State House at 4 p.m. Earlier he plans to pay his respects to Mayor Connolly at City Hall.

Trenton Elks will hold a reception and cocktail party from 4:30 to 5:30 at the Elks Home at 120 North Warren Street.

From Trenton Grand Exalted Ruler Blackledge, whose home is at Kearney Nebraska, will go to Mount Holly where he will be the guest of honor of Mount Holly Lodge No. 845 at a dinner at Fireside Inn, that place.

Blackledge was elected grand exalted ruler at the San Francisco convention of the Elks. The 58-year-old lawyer has been an Elk for 30 years.
